Animals - Family Portraits

by Justine de Lagausie and Aude Marie

A large animal picture book arranged by family to sharpen children's eyes and teach them a wide range of vocabulary. In the cat family, for example, they will discover the lynx, the jaguar, the puma, the ocelot and many other cousins. Beautiful and educational!

24 x 29,5 cm – 40 pages – Hardcover picture book

Aude Marie was born in 1984 in Normandy, and studied textile design in Paris then in the Central Saint Martins School in London. She now lives in Nantes, where she is painting English doggies, drawing landscapes and her collections of all kinds of objects. She also runs workshops for children and adults, in which they can create printing stamps, pictures and little books.

Pop-up Zoo

by Martine Perrin

The zoo is opening! Quick, admire the animals before the guard closes the doors. Watch the monkey, giraffe, elephant, flamingo, zebra, snake, crocodile, parrot and lion go by. And if you're observant, find the little thief...

9 animal pop-ups to discover the animals of the zoo in a highly graphic album.

Age 1+ - 17 x 17 cm - 24 pages + cover - Board book with round corners and pop-up

JUMBLE SERIES

by Martine Perrin

Riddles and cut-out pages to explore countries with a graphic vision! Martine Perrin creates picture books for toddlers the same way she would make objects with forms and colours, frameworks and surfaces, height and space. You can see these images as spaces, which add up or hide each other, look at the world differently and wander. With them, you can imagine, create and above all, have fun!

Age 3+ - 17 x 17 cm - 36 pages - Board books with round corners and cut-out pages

Publishers: Les Grandes Personnes (France), Franco Cosimo Panini (Italy)

Titles available: In China - In Africa
Among Native Americans - At the Farm
In Australia - At the North Pole

Martine Perrin was born in Paris in 1965 and lives near Bordeaux (France). She trained as an architect. While studying architecture, she became interested in set design and created a number of sets for plays. Since the birth of her daughter, she has been making picture books, like objects, in an attempt to convey images to toddlers and young children, like spaces that add up or subtract, conceal or mislead the reader.

STORIES TO MIX SERIES

by Léo Righini-Fleur

A new series for toddlers: each spread contains a house-shaped puzzle piece that can be turned over to change the course of the story. The little reader somehow becomes the author of the book and has fun mixing everything up. Original and entertaining!
