Marco Chamorro is an Ecuadorian author and illustrator. He studied painting in Daniel-Reyes school of Fine Arts in Ecuador and graduated with a master's degree in picture books from the University of Madrid. He has been living in France since 2020 and dedicates his time to illustrating and writing children's books. He published around twenty books in Spanish and represented his country on the IBBY Honour List three times. In France he published four books with Seuil jeunesse, Voce Verso, Esperluète and L'Agume.

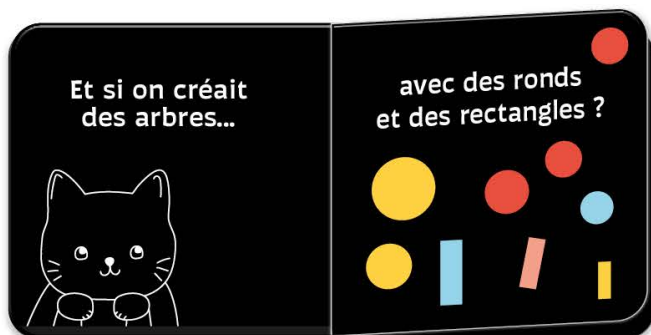

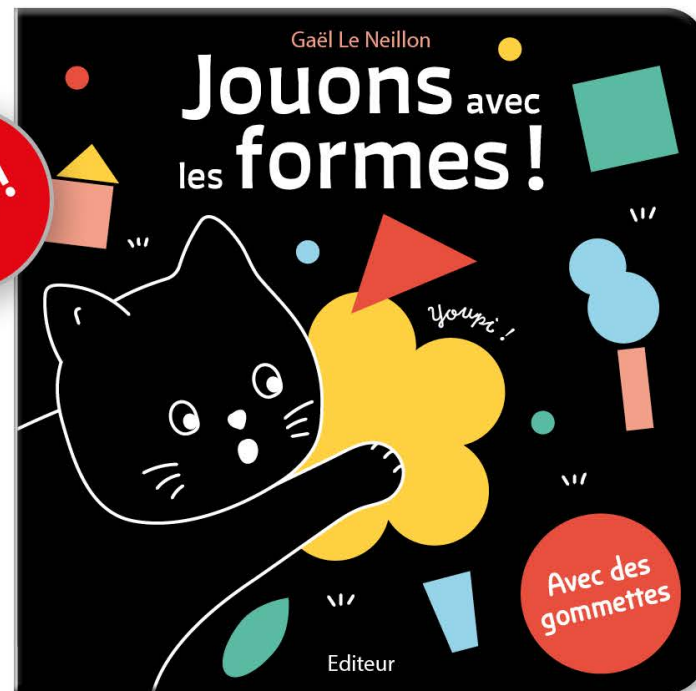

Let's Play With Shapes!

by Gaël Le Neillon

A boardbook that plays with shapes and colors to help toddlers discover their creative potential!

Gaël Le Neillon features a mischievous little cat who brings simple, colorful shapes to life by combining them to create houses, cities, trees, forests, and funny characters. At the end of the book, the cat creates comical scenes by bringing together all these elements.

Age: 2+ – 16 x 16 cm – 40 pages + cover – Boardbook

Colour Colours

by Gaël Le Neillon

A highly graphic book for discovering colours in all their forms: the names of colours borrowed from animals, plants, food and minerals, colour combinations, gradations, cameos, families of colours and the optical illusions created by colours. A real feast for the eyes!

Age: 18 months+ – 20 x 20 cm – 40 pages + cover – Board book

Other format available: hardcover picture book

Publishers: Le Seuil (France), Il Castello (Italy)

After art studies in Strasbourg, Gaël Le Neillon gradually moved towards illustration and textile design. Now, from her studio in Nantes, she works mainly in publishing and for brands of games and toys for children (books, stationery, games, creative hobbies). She is the author and designer of several books and DIY boxes.

Great, an Egg!

by Claire Garralon

A picture book in which a squirrel and a hare discover a small egg. While they argue over who it belongs to, they do not expect the egg to crack open and a little owl to come out of it!

Age: 3+ – 19 x 19 cm – 20 pages
Board book or hardcover picture book

Black Cat & White Cat When Two Rabbits Are in Love

by Claire Garralon

Two graphic books in which black and white is enhanced by touches of colour. One tells the encounter between a black cat and a white cat. The other evokes family life and the birth of babies.

Age: 3+ – 19 x 19 cm – 20 pages – Board books or hardcover picture books
Publishers: Editions MeMo (France), Sourcebooks (USA), Leetra (Mexico), Polyandra Print (Russia), Oriental Babies (China), Fatatrac (Italy)

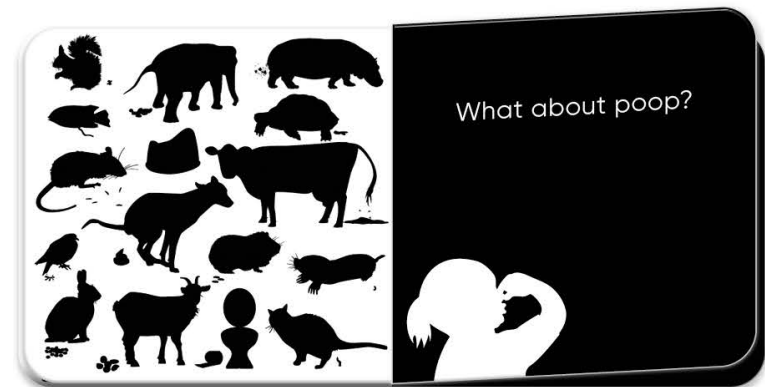

Five Senses in Pictures

by Claire Garralon

An amazing graphic book to awaken toddlers' five senses thanks to a unique black-and-white design. Through shapes and silhouettes, the world is outlined to reveal its wonders. A book to read with your eyes, nose, mouth, hands and ears!

Pop-up Animals!

by Martine Perrin

The animal reserve is opening! Quick, admire the animals before the guard closes the doors. Watch the monkey, giraffe, elephant, flamingo, zebra, snake, crocodile, parrot and lion go by. And if you're observant, find the little thief...
9 pop-up spreads to discover animals in a highly graphic book.

Age: 1+ - 17 x 17 cm - 24 pages + cover - Board book with round corners and pop-up

Martine Perrin was born in Paris in 1965 and lives near Bordeaux (France). She trained as an architect. While studying architecture, she became interested in set design and created a number of sets for plays. Since the birth of her daughter, she has been making picture books, like objects, in an attempt to convey images to toddlers and young children, like spaces that add up or subtract, conceal or mislead the reader.

STORIES TO MIX

by Léo Righini-Fleur

A new series for toddlers: each spread contains a house-shaped puzzle piece that can be turned over to change the course of the story. The little reader somehow becomes the author of the book and has fun mixing everything up. Original and entertaining!

Age: 2+ – 13 x 17.4 cm – 16 pages + cover – House-shaped board book
 Publisher: Albin Michel (France), Il Castello Editore (Italy), Tramuntana Editorial (Spain)

Titles available:

At the Witch's House
On the Pirate's Ship

Léo Righini-Fleur is an illustrator and designer of children's books. From the creation to the manipulation of his editorial objects, play is at the heart of his approach. This enables him to interact with his readers, sharing amusing stories, scientific content and poetic experiments. He extends this exchange through literary and visual arts workshops with children and young teenagers in schools and associations.

THE WONDERS OF LIFE SERIES

by Nathalie Trovato

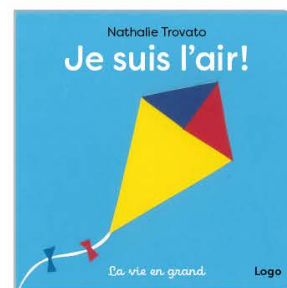

A series that invites toddlers to discover the 4 essential elements of life. The illustrations, all made from paper collage, immerse them in everyday scenes. And the text takes the form of a riddle.

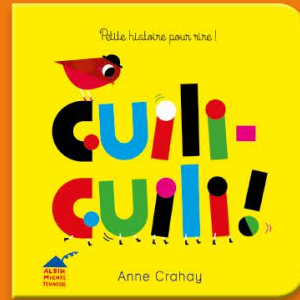

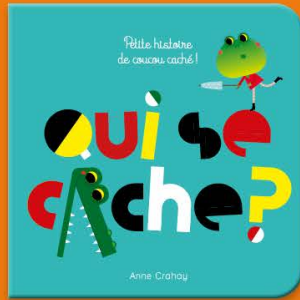

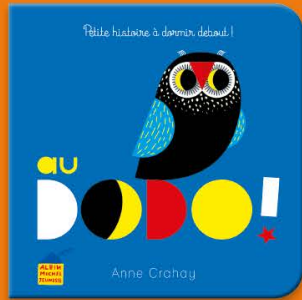

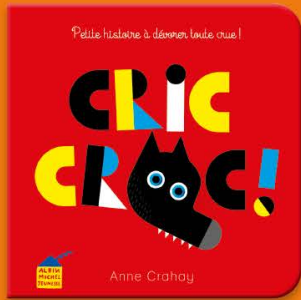

Age: 18 months+ – 24 pages + cover
 16 x 16 cm – Board Book with round corners

Titles available:

Fire – Water – Air – Earth

After studying languages and art history, Nathalie spent many years living abroad. She is now based in France, dividing her time between Paris and Montpellier. Her approach to drawing is both intuitive and playful, and she balances her creative practice across several fields, including publishing, textile design, and interior design.

MINI SECRETS SERIES

by Anne Crahay

Little rhymed stories whose words are turned into riddles. The answers to the questions are placed beneath easy-to-lift flaps for little fingers: the grip tabs stick out of the book and flipping the pages turns into « child's play ». Thick pages in a mini format with a smart elegant finish. Toddlers love it!
